And as Finally Passed by the Convention April 18, 1907

PREAMBLE

Invoking the guidance of Almighty God, in order to secure and perpetuate the blessing of liberty; to secure just and rightful government; to promote our mutual welfare and happiness, we, the people of the state of Oklahoma, do ordain and establish this constitution.

ARTICLE I

FEDERAL RELATIONS

Section 1. The state of Oklahoma is an inseparable part of the Federal Union, and the constitution of the United States is the supreme law of the land.

Sec. 2. Perfect toleration of religious sentiment shall be secured, and no inhabitant of the state shall ever be molested in person or property on account of his or her mode of religious worship; but the toleration of religious sentiment hereby secured shall not be so construed as to excuse acts of licentiousness or indecency, or to justify practices inconsistent with the good morals, good order, peace or safety of the state, or with the rights of others; and no religious test shall be required for the exercise of civil or political rights. Polygamous or plural marriages are forever prohibited.

Disclaim Right to Unappropriated Lands.

Sec. 3. The people inhabiting the state do agree and declare that they forever disclaim all right and title in or to any unappropriated public lands lying within the boundaries thereof, and to all lands lying within said limits owned or held by any Indian, tribe or nation; and that until the title to any such public land shall have been extinguished by the United States, the same shall be and remain subject to the jurisdiction, disposal and control of the United States. Land belonging to citizens of the United States residing without the limits of the state shall never be taxed at a higher rate than the lands belonging to residents thereof. No taxes shall be imposed by the state on lands or property belonging to or which may hereafter be purchased by the United States or reserved for its use.

Liabilities Assumed by State.

Sec. 4. The debts and liabilities of the Territory of Oklahoma are hereby assumed, and shall be paid by the state.

Schools.

Sec. 5. Provisions shall be made for the establishment and maintenance of a system of public schools, which shall be open to all the children of the state and free from sectarian control; and said schools shall always be conducted in English; provided, that nothing herein shall preclude the teaching of other languages in said public schools; and provided further, that this shall not be construed to prevent the establishment and maintenance of separate schools for white and colored children.

No Laws Curtailing People's Rights.

Sec. 6. The state shall never enact any law restricting or abridging the right of suffrage on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

Pertaining to Liquors.

Sec. 7. The manufacture, sale, barter, giving away, or otherwise furnishing, except as hereinafter provided, of intoxicating liquors within those parts of the state, heretofore known as the Indian Territory and the Osage Indian reservation and within any other parts of the state which existed as Indian reservations on the first day of January, nineteen hundred and six, is prohibited for a period of twenty-one years from the date of the admission of the state into the union, and thereafter until the people of the state shall otherwise provide by amendment of this constitution and pro-er state legislation. Any person, individual or corporate, who shall manufacture, sell, barter, give away or otherwise furnish any intoxicating liquor of any kind, including beer, ale and wine, contrary to provisions of this section, or who shall, within the above-described portion of the state, advertise for sale or solicit the purchase of any such liquors, or who shall ship or in any way convey such liquors from other parts of the state into the portions hereinbefore described, shall be punished, on conviction thereof, by fine not less than fifty dollars and by imprisonment not less than thirty days for each offense; Provided, that the legislature may provide by law for one agency under the supervision of the state in each incorporated town of not less than two thousand population, in the portions of the state hereinbefore described; and if there be no incorporated town of two thousand population in any county in said portions of the state, such county shall be entitled to have one such agency, for the sale of such liquors for medicinal purposes and for the sale, for industrial purposes, of alcohol which shall have been denaturized by process approved by United States commissioner of internal revenue, and for the sale of alcohol for scientific purposes to such scientific institutions, universities and colleges as are authorized to procure the same free of tax under the laws of the United States; and for the sale of such liquors to any apothecary who shall have executed an approved bond, in a sum not less than one thousand dollars, conditioned that none of such liquors shall be used or disposed of for any purpose other than in the compounding of prescriptions or other medicines, the sale of which would not subject him to the payment of the special tax required of liquor dealers by the United States, and the payment of such special tax by any person within the parts of the state hereinabove defined shall constitute prima facie evidence of his intention to violate the provisions of this section. No sale shall be made except upon the sworn statement of the applicant in writing, setting forth the purpose for which the liquor is to be used, and no sale shall be made for medicinal purposes except sales to apothecaries as hereinabove provided unless such statement shall be accompanied by a bona fide prescription signed by a regular practicing physician, which prescription shall not be filled more than once. Each sale shall be duly registered, and the register thereof, together with the affidavits and prescriptions pertaining thereto, shall be open to inspection by any officer or citizen of the state at all times during business hours. Any person who shall knowingly make a false affidavit for the purpose aforesaid shall be deemed guilty of perjury. Any physician who shall prescribe liquor, except for treatment of disease which, after his own personal diagnosis, he shall deem to require such treatment, shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished for each offense by fine of not less than two hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for not less than thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment; and any person connected with any such agency, who shall be convicted of making any sale or other disposition of liquor contrary to these provisions, shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than one year and one day. Upon the admission of the state into the union, these provisions shall be immediately enforcible in the courts of the state.

ARTICLE II

BILL OF RIGHTS

Section 1. All political power is inherent in the people; and government is instituted for their protection, security and benefit, and to promote their general welfare; and they have the right to alter or reform the same whenever the public good may require it. Provided, such change be not repugnant to the constitution of the United States.

Sec. 2. All persons have the inherent right to life, liberty, the pursuit of happiness and the enjoyment of the gains of their own industry.

Sec. 3. The people have the right peaceably to assemble for their own good, and to apply to those invested with the powers of government for redress of grievances by petition, address or remonstrance.

Sec. 4. No power, civil or military, shall ever interfere to prevent the free exercise of the right of suffrage by those entitled to such right.

Sec. 5. No public money or property shall ever be appropriated, applied, donated or used, directly or indirectly, for the use, benefit or support of any sect, church, denomination or system of religion, or for the use, benefit or support of any priest, preacher, minister or other religious teacher or dignitary, or sectarian institution as such.

Sec. 6. The courts of justice of the state shall be open to every person, and speedy and certain remedy afforded for every wrong, and for every injury to person, property or reputation; and right and justice shall be administered without sale, denial, delay or prejudice.

Sec 7. No person shall be deprived of life, liberty or property, without due process of law.

Sec. 8. All persons shall be bailable by sufficient sureties, except for capital offenses when the proof of guilt is evident, or the presumption thereof is great.

Sec. 9. Excessive bail shall not be required nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel or unusual punishments inflicted.

Sec. 10. The privileges of the writ of habeas corpus shall never be suspended.

Sec. 11. Every person elected or appointed to any office or employment of trust or profit under the laws of the state, or under any ordinance of any municipality thereof, shall give personal attention to the duties of the office to which he is elected or appointed.

Sec. 12. No member of congress from this state, or person holding any office of trust or profit under the laws of any other state, or of the United States shall be eligible to any office of trust or profit under the laws of this state.

Sec. 13. Imprisonment for debt is prohibited, except for the non-payment of fines and penalties imposed for the violation of law.

Sec. 14. The military shall be held in strict subordination to the civil authorities. No soldier shall be quartered in any house in time of peace, without the consent of the owner, nor in time of war, except in a manner to be prescribed by law.

Sec. 15. No bill of attainder, ex post facto law, nor any law impairing the obligation of contracts, shall ever be passed. No conviction shall work a corruption of blood or forfeiture of estate; provided, that this provision shall not prohibit the imposition of pecuniary penalties.

Sec. 16. Treason against the state shall consist only in levying war against it or in adhering to its enemies, giving them aid and comfort. No person shall be convicted of treason, unless on the testimony of two witness to the same overt act, or on confession in open court.

Sec. 17. No person shall be prosecuted criminally in courts of record for felony or misdemeanor otherwise than by presentment or indictment or by information. No person shall be prosecuted for a felony by information without having had a preliminary examination before an examining magistrate, or having waived such preliminary examination. Prosecutions may be instituted in courts

Power of Grand Juries.

Sec. 18. A grand jury shall be composed of twelve men, any nine of whom concurring may find an indictment or true bill. A grand jury shall be convened upon the order of a judge of a court having the power to try and determine felonies, upon his own motion; or such grand jury shall be ordered by such judge upon the filing of a petition therefor, signed by one hundred resident taxpayers of the county; when so assembled such grand jury shall have power to investigate and return indictments for all character and grades of crime, and such other powers as the legislature may prescribe; provided, that the legislature may make the calling of a grand jury compulsory.

Trial by Jury.

Sec. 19. The right of trial by jury shall be and remain inviolate, and a jury for the trial of civil and criminal cases in courts of record, other than county courts shall consist of twelve men; but, in county courts and courts not of record, a jury shall consist of six men. This section shall not be construed as to prevent limitations being fixed by law upon the right of appeal from judgments of courts not of record in civil cases concerning causes of action involving less than twenty dollars. In civil cases, and in criminal cases less than felonies, three-fourths of the whole number of jurors concurring shall have power to render a verdict. In all other cases the entire number of jurors must concur to render a verdict. In case a verdict is rendered by less than the whole number of jurors, the verdict shall be in writing and signed by each juror concurring therein.

Rights of Accused.

Sec. 20. In all criminal prosecutions the accused shall have the right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury of the county in which the crime shall have been committed; provided, that the venue may be changed to some other county of the state, on the application of the accused, in such manner as may be prescribed by law. He shall be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation against him and have a copy thereof, and be confronted with the witnesses against him, and have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his behalf. He shall have the right to be heard by himself, and counsel, and in capital cases, at least two days before the case is called for trial, he shall be furnished with a list of the witnesses that will be called, in chief, to prove the allegations of the indictment or information, together with their postoffice addresses.

Incriminating Evidence not Obligatory

Sec. 21. No person shall be compelled to give evidence which will tend to incriminate him, except as in this constitution specifically provided; nor shall any person, after having been once acquitted by a jury, be again put in jeopardy of life or liberty for that of which he has been acquitted; nor shall any person be twice put in jeopardy of life or liberty for the same offense.

Sec. 22. Every person may freely speak, write or publish his sentiments on all subjects, being responsible for the abuse of that right; and no law shall be passed to restrain or abridge the liberty of speech or of the press. In all criminal prosecutions for libel the truth of the matter alleged to be libelous may be given in evidence to the jury, and if it shall appear to the jury that the matter charged as libelous be true, and was written or published with good motives and for justifiable ends, the party shall be acquitted.

No Private Property used without Compensation.

Sec. 23. No private property shall be taken or damaged for private use, with or without compensation, unless by consent of the owner, except for private ways of necessity, or for drains, and ditches across lands of others for agricultural, mining or sanitary purpose in such manner as may be prescribed by law.

Sec. 24. Private property shall not be taken or damaged for public use without just compensation. Such compensation, irrespective of any benefit from any improvements proposed, shall be ascertained by a board of commissioners of not less than three freeholders, in such manner as may be prescribed by law. The commissioners shall not be appointed by any judge or court without reasonable notice having been served upon all parties in interest. The commissioners shall be selected from the regular jury list of names prepared and made as the legislature shall provide. Any party aggrieved shall have the right of appeal, without bond, and trial by jury in a court of record. Until the compensation shall be paid to the owner, or into court for the owner, the property shall not be disturbed, or the proprietary rights of the owner divested. When possession is taken of property condemned for any public use, the owner shall be entitled to the immediate receipt of the compensation awarded, without prejudice to the right of either party to prosecute further proceedings for the judicial determination of the sufficiency or insufficiency of such compensation. The fee of land taken by common carriers for right of way, without the consent of the owner, shall remain in such owner, subject only to the use for which it is taken. In all cases of condemnation of private property for public or private use, the determination of the character of the use shall be a judicial question.

Laws Regulating Matters of Contempt

Sec. 25. The legislature shall pass laws defining contempts and regulating the proceedings and punishment in matters of contempt; provided, that any person accused of violating or disobeying any order or injunction or restraint, made or rendered by any court or judge of the state shall, before penalty or punishment is imposed, be entitled to a trial by jury as to the guilt or innocence of the accused. In no case shall a penalty or punishment be imposed for contempt, until an opportunity to be heard is given.

Sec. 26. The right of a citizen to keep and bear arms in defense of his home, person or property, or in aid of the civil power, when thereunto legally summoned, shall never be prohibited; but nothing herein contained shall prevent the legislature from regulating the carrying of weapons.

Giving Testimony.

Sec. 27. Any person having knowledge or possession of facts that tend to establish the guilt of any other person or corporation, charged with an offense against the laws of the state, shall not be excused from giving testimony or producing evidence when legally called upon so to do, on the ground that it may tend to incriminate him under the laws of the state; but no person shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he may so testify or produce evidence.

Records and Papers Subject to Inspection.

Sec. 28. The records, books, and files of all corporations shall be, at all times, liable and subject to the full visitorial and inquisitorial powers of the state, notwithstanding the immunities and privileges in this bill of rights, secured to the persons, inhabitants and citizens thereof.

Transportation and Extradition Laws.

Sec. 29. No person shall be transported out of the state for any offense committed within the state, nor shall any person be transported out of the state for any purpose, without his consent, except by due process of law; but nothing in this provision shall prevent the operation of extradition laws, or the transporting of persons sentenced for crime, to other states for the purpose of incarceration.

Rights of People.

Sec. 30. The right of people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches or seizures, shall not be violated; and no warrant shall issue but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation describing as particularly as may be the place to be searched and the person or thing to be seized.

Rights of State.

Sec. 31. The right of the state to engage in any occupation or business for public purposes shall not be denied nor prohibited except that the state shall not engage in agriculture for any other than educational and scientific purposes, and for the support of its penal, charitable and educational institutions.

Sec. 32. Perpetuities and monopolies are contrary to the genius of a free government, and shall never be allowed; nor shall the law of primogeniture or entailment ever be enforced in this state.

Sec. 33. The enumeration in this constitution of certain rights shall not be construed to deny, impair or disparage others retained by the people.

ARTICLE III.

SUFFRAGE.

Section 1. The qualified electors of the state shall be male citizens of the United States, male citizens of the state, and male persons of Indian descent, native to the United States, who are over the age of twenty-one years, who have resided in the state one year, in the county six months, and in the election precinct thirty days next preceding the election at which any such elector offers to vote; provided, that no person adjudged guilty of a felony after the adoption of this constitution, subject to such exceptions as the legislature may prescribe, unless his citizenship shall have been restored in the manner provided by law; nor any person, while kept in a poor house or other asylum at the public expense, except federal and confederate ex-soldiers; nor any person in a public prison, nor any idiot or lunatic, shall be entitled to vote at any election under the laws of this state.

Power of Legislature.

Sec. 2. The legislature may make additional limitations on the right of suffrage and may add additional disabilities thereto, but in no event shall the legislature change the qualifications or disabilities herein mentioned; Provided; that the legislature shall never enact any law restricting or abridging this right of suffrage on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

Who May not Vote.

Sec. 3. No officer, soldier or marine of the regular army or navy of the United States shall be entitled to vote at any election in this state; Provided, that this section shall not be construed to include members and officers of the state militia.

Those Who May Vote.

Sec. 4. Nothing in this constitution shall be construed to deprive retired officers or retired privates of the army or navy of the United States of the rights of suffrage, when otherwise qualified.

Sec. 5. Until otherwise provided by law, all female citizens of this state, possessing like qualifications of male electors, shall be qualified to vote at school district elections or meetings.

Sec. 6. The legislature shall enact laws creating an election board (not more than a majority of whose members shall be selected from the same political party,) and shall provide the time and manner of holding and conducting all elections; and, at any time the federal constitution may permit the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people, the legislature shall provide for their election as for the election of governor and other elective officers.

Sec. 7. The legislature shall enact laws providing for a mandatory primary system, which shall provide for the nomination of all candidates in all elections for state, district, county, and municipal officers, for all political parties, including United States senators: Provided, however this provision shall not exclude the right of the people to place on the ballot by petition any non-partisan candidate.

Sec. 8. In all elections by the people the vote shall be by ballot to be used and make all such other regulations as may be necessary to detect and punish fraud, and preserve the purity of the ballot; and may, when necessary, provide, by law for the registration of electors throughout the state or in any incorporated city or town thereof, and, when it is so provided, no person shall vote at any election unless he shall have registered according to law.

Sec. 9. The election shall be free and equal. No power, civil, or military, shall ever interfere to prevent the free exercise of the right of suffrage, and electors shall in all cases, except for treason, felony, and breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest during their attendance on elections and while going to and from the same.

ARTICLE IV.

GOVERNMENT

Section 1. The powers of the government of the state of Oklahoma shall be divided into three separate departments: The legislative, executive, and judicial; and except as provided in this constitution, the legislative, executive, and judicial departments of government shall be separate and distinct, and neither shall exercise the powers properly belonging to either of the others.

ARTICLE V.

INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM.

Section 1. The legislative authority of the state shall be vested in a legislature, consisting of a senate and a house of representatives; but the people reserve to themselves the power to propose laws and amendments to the constitution and to enact or reject the same at the polls independent of the legislature, and also reserve power, at their own option, to approve or reject at the polls any act of the legislature.

Eight per Cent of Legal Voters

Sec. 2. The first power reserved by the people is the initiative, and eight (8) per centum of the legal voters shall have the right to propose any legislative measure, and fifteen (15) per centum of the legal voters shall have the right to propose an amendment to the constitution by petition, and every such petition shall include the full text of the measure so proposed. The second power is the referendum, and it may be ordered (except as to laws necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety,) either by petition, signed by five (5) per centum of the legal voters or by the legislature, as other bills are enacted. The ratio and per centum of legal voters hereinbefore stated shall be based upon the total number of votes cast at the last general election for the state office receiving the highest number of votes at such election.

Ninety Days After Adjournment of Legislature

Sec. 3. Referendum petitions shall be filed with the secretary of state not more than ninety (90) days after the final adjournment of the session of the legislature which passed the bill on which the referendum is demanded. The veto power of the governor shall not extend to measures voted on by the people. All elections on measures referred to the people of the state shall be had at the next election held throughout the state, except when the legislature or the governor shall order a special election for the express purpose of making such reference, Any measure referred to the people shall take effect and be in force when it shall have been approved by a majority of the votes cast thereon, and not otherwise.

Style of Bills.

The style of all bills shall be, "Be it enacted by the people of the state of Oklahoma."

Petitions and orders for the initiative and for the referendum shall be filed with the secretary of state and addressed to the governor of the state, who shall submit the same to the people. The legislature shall make suitable provisions for carrying into effect the provisions of this article and if the legislature shall fail to make such provisions, or shall make inadequate provisions, then the governor of the state shall, by executive order, make such rules as may be necessary to carry these provisions into effect.

Sec. 4. The referendum may be demanded by the people against one or more items, sections or parts of any act of the legislature in the same manner in which such power may be exercised against a complete act. The filing of a referendum petition against one or more items, sections or parts of an act shall not delay the remainder of such act from becoming operative.

Sec. 5. The powers of the initiative and referendum, reserved to the people by this constitution, for the state at large, are hereby further reserved for the legal voters of every county and district therein, as to all local and special legislation and action in the administration of county and district government in and for their respective counties and districts.

The manner of exercising said powers shall be prescribed by general laws, except that boards of county commissioners may provide for the time of exercising the initiative and referendum powers as to local legislation in their respective counties and districts.

The requisite number of petitioners for the invocation of the initiative and referendum in counties and districts shall bear twice, or double, the ratio to the whole number of legal voters in such county or district, as herein provided therefor in the state at large.

Sec. 6. Any measure rejected by the people, through the powers of the initiative and referendum, cannot be again proposed by the initiative within three years thereafter by less than twenty-five (25) per centum of the legal voters.

Sec. 7. The reservation of the powers of the initiative and referendum in this article shall not deprive the legislature of the right to propose or pass any measure, which may be consistent with the constitution of the state and the constitution of the United States.

Sec. 8. Laws shall be provided to prevent corruption in the making, procuring and submitting initiative and referendum petitions.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Forty-one Senators

Sec. 9. The senate shall consist of not more than 41 members, whose term of office shall be four years; provided, that senators elected at the first election from the even numbered districts shall hold office until the 15th day succeeding the day of the regular state election in 1908, and those elected from the odd numbered districts at said first election, shall hold office until the 15th day succeeding the day of the regular state election in 1910.

One-hundred and- five Reperesentatives

Sec. 10. The house of representatives, until otherwise provided by law, shall consist of not more than 105 members, who shall hold office for two years; provided, that representatives elected at the first election shall hold office until the 15th day succeeding the day of the regular state election in 1908.

Provided further that the membership of the house of representatives shall never exceed 123 members.

The first legislature shall meet at the seat of government upon proclamation of the governor on a day named in said proclamation, which shall not be more than 30, nor less than 15 days after the admission of the state into the union.

The authority of the commission (subject to review on appeal as hereinafter provided) to prescribe rates, charges, and classifications of traffic, for transportation and transmission companies, shall, subject to regulation by law, be paramount; but its authority to prescribe any other rules, regulations or requirements for corporations or other persons shall be subject to the superior authority of the legislature to legislate thereon by general laws; provided, however, that nothing in this section shall impair the rights which have heretofore been or may hereafter be conferred by law upon the authorities of any city, town or county to prescribe rules, regulations or rates of charges to be observed by any public service corporation in connection with any services performed by it under a municipal or county franchise granted by such city, town or county, so far as such services may be wholly within the limits of the city, town or county granting the franchise. duly cited, proceeded against by due process of law before the commission sitting as a court, and afforded opportunity to introduce evidence and to be heard, as well as against the validity, justness, or reasonableness of the order or requirement alleged to have been violated, as against the liabilty of the company for the alleged violation) such fines or other penalties as may be prescribed or authorized by this constitution or by law. The commission may be vested with such additional powers and charged with such other duties (not inconsistent with this constitution) as may be prescribed by law, in connection with the visitation, regulation, or control of corporations, or with the prescribing and enforcing of rates and charges to be observed in the conduct of any business where the state has the right to prescribe the rates and charges in connection therewith, or with the assessment of the property of corporations, or the appraisement of their franchises, for taxation, or with the investigation of the subject of taxation generally. Any corporation failing or refusing to obey any valid order or requirement of the commission, within such reasonable time, not less than ten days as shall be fixed in the order, may be fined by the commission (proceeding by due process of law as aforesaid) such sum, not exceeding five hundred dollars, as the commission may deem proper, or such sum, in excess of five hundred dollars, as may be prescribed or authorized by law; and each day's continuance of such failure or refusal, after due service upon such corporation of the order or requirement of the commission, shall be a separate offense; Provided, that should the operation of such order or requirement be suspended, pending any appeal therefrom, the period of such suspension shall not be computed against the company in the matter of its liabilty to fines or penalties.

Sec. 20. From any action of the commission prescribing rates, charges, or classifications of traffic, or affecting the train schedule of any transportation company, or requiring additional facilities, conveniences, or public service of any transportation or transmission company, or refusing to approve a suspending bond, or requiring additional security thereon or an increase thereof, as hereinafter provided for, an appeal (subject to such reasonable limitations as to time, regulations as to precedure and provisions as to costs, as may be prescribed by law) may be taken by the corporation whose rates, charges, or classifications of traffic, schedule, facilities, conveniences, or service, are affected, or by any person deeming himself aggrieved by such action, or (if allowed by law) by the state. Until otherwise provided by law, such appeal shall be taken in the manner in which appeals may be taken to the supreme court from the district courts, except that such an appeal shall be of right, and the supreme court may provide by rule for proceedings in the matter of appeals in any particular in which the existing rules of law are inapplicable. If such appeal be taken by the corporation whose rates, charges, or classifications of traffic, schedules, facilities, conveniences, or service are affected, the state shall be made the appellee; but, in the other cases mentioned, the corporation so affected shall be made the appellee. The legislature may also, by general laws, provide for appeals from any other action of the commission by the state or by any person interested, irrespective of the amount involved. All appeals from the commission shall be to the supreme court only and in all appeals to which the state is a party it shall be represented by the attorney general or his legally appointed representative. No court of this state (except the supreme coure, by way of appeals is herein authorized) shall have jurisdiction to review, reverse, correct, or annul any action of the commission within the scope of its authority, or to suspend or delay the execution or operation thereof, or to enjoin, restrain, or interfere with the commission in the performance of its official duties; Provided, however, that the writs of mandamus and prohibition shall lie from the supreme court to the commission in all cases where such writs respectively, would lie to any inferior court or officer.

Sec. 21. Upon the granting of an appeal, a writ of supersedeas may be awarded by the supreme court, suspending the operation of the action appealed from until the final disposition of the appeal; but prior to the final reversal thereof by the supreme court, no action of the commission prescribing or affecting the rates, charges, or classifications of traffic of any transportation or transmission company shall be delayed, or suspended in its operation, by reason of any appeal by such corporation, or by reason of any proceeding resulting from such appeal, until a suspending bond shall first have been executed and filed with, and approved by, the commission (or approved on review by the supreme court), payable to the state, and sufficient in amount and security to insure the prompt refunding, by the appealing corporation to the parties entitled thereto, of all charges which such company may collect or receive, pending the appeal, in excess of those fixed, or authorized, by the final decision of the court on appeal. The commission, upon the execution of such bond, shall forthwith require the appealing company, under penalty of the immediate enforcement (pending the appeal and notwithstanding any supersedeas), of the order or requirement appealed from, to keep such accounts and to make to the commission, from time to time, such reports, verified by oath, as may in the judgment of the commission, suffice to show the amount being charged or received by the company, pending the appeal, in excess of the charge, allowed by the action of the commission, appeal from, together with the names and addresses of the persons to whom such overcharges will be refundable in case the charges made by the company, pending the appeal, be not sustained on such appeal; and the commission shall also from time to time, require such company under like penalty, to give additional security on, or to increase the said suspending bond whenever, in the opinion of the commission, the same may be necessary to insure the prompt refunding of the overcharge aforesaid. Upon the final decision of such appeal, all amounts which the appealing company may have collected, pending the appeal, in excess of that authorized by such final decision, shall be promptly refunded by the company to the parties entitled thereto, in such manner and through such methods of distribution as may be prescribed by the commission or by law. All such appeals, affecting rates, charges, or classifications of traffic, shall have precedence upon the docket of the supreme court, and shall be heard and disposed of promptly by the court, irrespective of its place of session, next after the habeas corpus, and state cases already on the docket of the court.

Right to Appeal to Supreme Court

Sec. 22. In no case of appeal from the commission, shall any new or additional evidence be introduced in the supreme court, but the chairman of the commission, under the seal of the commission, shall certify to the supreme court all the facts upon which the action appealed from was based and which may be essential for the proper decision of the appeal, together with such of the evidence introduced before, or considered by, the commission as may be selected, specified, and required to be certified, by any party in interest, as well as such other evidence, so introduced or considered as the commission may deem proper to certify. The commission shall, whenever an appeal is taken therefrom, file with the record of the case, and as a part thereof a written statement of the reasons upon which the action appealed from was based, and such statement shall be read and considered by the supreme court, upon disposing of the appeal. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction, on such appeal, to consider and determine the reasonableness and justness of the action of the commission appealed from, as well as any other matter arising under such appeal; Provided, however, that the action of the commission appealed from shall be regarded as prima facie just, reasonable and correct; but the court may, when it deems necessary, in the interest of justice, remand to the commission any case pending on appeal and require the same to be further investigated by the commission and reported upon to the court (together with a certificate of such additional evidence as may be tendered before the commission by any party in interest) before the appeal is finally decided.

When the Court Reverses an Order of The Commission

Sec. 23. Whenever the court, upon appeal, shall reverse an order of the commission affecting the rates, charges, or the classifications of traffic or any transportation or transmission company, it shall, at the same time, substitute therefor, such orders as in its opinion, the commission should have made at the time of entering the order appealed from; otherwise the reversal order shall not be valid. Such substituted order shall have the same force and effect (and none other) as if it had been entered by the commission at the time the original order appealed from was entered. The right of the commission to prescribe and enforce rates, charges, classifications, rules, and regulations affecting any or all actions of the commission theretofore entered by it and appealed from, but based upon circumstances or conditions different from those existing at the time the order appealed from was made, shall not be suspended or impaired by reason of the pendency of such appeal, but no order of the commission, prescribing or altering such rates, charges, classifications, rules, or regulations shall be retroactive.
